FOCUS. The Campus Minister was conceived to serve as a forum for the presentation and discussion of a wide range of theological and practical concerns relevant to enhancing professional competency among Southern Baptist campus ministers. The Campus Minister is also a publication which will aid the stated purposes of the ASBCM.

MANUSCRIPTS for The Campus Minister are solicited and should be sent to: Stephen Hollaway, 1505 10th Avenue South, Birmingham, AL 35205. Articles must be professional in nature dealing with practical and theological issues in campus ministry. Articles should be 2,000-2,500 words (8-12 typewritten pages), double spaced, and conforming to an acceptable style guide. Complete bibliographic references are required, including year, volume, page, publisher, etc. A short biographical sketch on the author should accompany each manuscript.

Receipt of manuscript will be acknowledged. Notification of acceptance can be expected as rapidly as possible within the constraints of professional review. Accepted manuscripts will be published in the first available issue, although the publications committee reserves the right to hold material for thematic treatment at a later date.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS are available to institutions only at the rate of seven dollars ($7.00) per year. The Campus Minister is automatically sent to both professional and affiliate members of ASBCM. Annual subscriptions or requests for single issue should be sent to: Stephen Hollaway, 1505 10th Avenue, South, Birmingham, Alabama 35205.
