

The Lutheran Campus Ministry Association Journal

The Lutheran Campus Ministry Association was established in 1969 as a professional association of campus ministers, lay and ordained, among all of the Lutheran church bodies. Today, it represents, as a volunteer association, ministers of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (which is the church body being formed in January 1988 whose current agency is National Lutheran Campus Ministry). LCMA publishes an occasional journal edited by Michael Sharp of the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis. The current president is Karl Koch of Ames, Iowa. The president-elect (1987-8) is Norb Firnhaber of San Jose, California. Other officers are: John Deines of Cedar Falls, Iowa, secretary; Kim Williams of Fargo, North Dakota, treasurer; and Jim Kocher of East Lansing, Michigan, membership secretary.

The Campus Minister

Journal of the Association of Southern Baptist Campus Ministers

Publications Committee, ASBCM:

Stephen Hollaway, Editor, Columbia University, New York,
New York

Dwight Lyons, Production Manager, Louisville, Kentucky

Bill Choate, Book Review Editor, University of Tennessee,
Knoxville, Tennessee

George Jones, Member, Ball State University, Muncie, Indiana

David Roland, Member, Brewton-Parker College, Mt. Vernon,
Georgia

ASBCM Officers:

Robert Ford, President, Jacksonville, Alabama

Arliss Dickerson, President-Elect, State University, Arkansas

Sylvan Knobloch, Vice President Administration, Charleston, Illinois

Adam Hall, Vice President Membership, Martin, Tennessee

Pam Taylor, Vice President Programs, Denton, Texas

Stephen Hollaway, Vice President Publications, New York,
New York