

"Just as the whole world is a school for the whole of the human race, from the beginning of time to the very end, so the whole of life is a school for every man, from the cradle to the grave... Every age is destined for learning, nor is man given other goals in learning than in life itself."

John Amos Comenius

"The great lawyer has always been a great teacher, and his best pupil is himself."

Charles Evans Hughes

"The most important thing about education is appetite. Education does not begin with the university and it certainly ought not to end there."

Winston Churchill

"The attainment of proficiency, the pushing of your skill with attention to the most delicate shades of excellence, is a matter of vital concern. Efficiency of a practically flawless kind may be reached naturally in the struggle for bread. But there is something beyond—a higher point, a subtle and unmistakable touch of love and pride beyond mere skill; almost an inspiration which gives to all work that finish which is almost art—which is art."

Joseph Conrad

"Although a man's work may indeed be a good clue to his personal and social fate, it is a clue that leads us—and the individual himself—not be a clear and single track to a known goal, but into a maze full of dead-ends and of unexpected adventures."

Everett Cherrington Hughes
