FOCUS. The Campus Minister was conceived to serve as a forum for the presentation and discussion of a wide range of theological and practical concerns relevant to enhancing professional competency among Southern Baptist campus ministers. The Campus Minister is also a publication which will aid the state purposes of the ASBCM.

MANUSCRIPTS for The Campus Minister are solicited and should be sent to Ircel Harrison, Box 1913, Carson-Newman College, Jefferson City, Tennessee 37760. Articles must be professional in nature dealing with practical and theological issues in campus ministry. Articles should be 2,000-2,500 words (8-12 typewritten pages), double spaced, and conforming to an acceptable style guide. Complete bibliographic references are required, including year, volume, page, publisher, etc. A short biographical sketch on the author should accompany each manuscript.

Receipt of the manuscript will be acknowledged. Notification of acceptance can be expected as rapidly as possible within the constraints of profession review. Accepted manuscripts will be published in the first available issue, although the publications committee reserves the right to hold material for thematic treatment at a later date.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION RATES are $7 per year or $3.75 per issue. The Campus Minister is automatically sent to members of ASBCM. Annual subscriptions or requests for single issue should be sent to Ircel Harrison, Box 1913, Carson-Newman College, Jefferson City, Tennessee 37760.
